From Tuesday September 30. to Saturday October 4. 1712.

Windsor, September 30.

THE following Addreſs from the Shire of Kinroſs, was ſent up by Sir Alexander Areskin, Lord Lyon, and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the Shire of Kinroſs, with Concours of Sir John Malcolme, Bart. their Repreſentative in this preſent Parliament.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE approach Your Sacred Majeſty with Hearts full of Joy, and moſt dutiful Acknowledgments for the Hopes You are pleas'd to give Your People of a glorious and happy Peace.

We humbly Congratulate the ſurprizing good Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Negotiations. We pray Almighty God to direct and aſſiſt You in all Your Undertakings, ever to bleſs You, and to continue with Your Majeſty's good and faithful Counſellors, and to diſappoint all the unaccountable Contrivance of Evil and Self-deſigning Men both at Home and Abroad.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Weſtlowe, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Hedges, Eſq; in the abſence of Sir Charles Hedges, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Vice Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Corporation of Portbyhan alias Weſtlowe in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects do, with the utmoſt Humility and Loyalty, expreſs our Thanks for Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion, in acquainting Your Parliament with the Terms upon which an honourable and advantageous Peace may be made. The many and ſignal Victories which adorn Your Majeſty's Reign, will ſufficiently evidence to lateſt Poſterity, the Succeſs of Britiſh Valour, under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Government. And Your Majeſty having ſettled the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hannover, there will be nothing wanting but the Advantages of that Peace Your Majeſty has graciouſly given us ſo near a Proſpect of, to make us a flouriſhing and a happy People, and your Majeſty's Reign moſt Glorious: That Your Majeſty may long enjoy the bleſſed Fruits of a peaceful Reign, is the ſincere Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Montroſs, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Levingſtone, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bayliffs, Dean of Guild, Treaſurer and Town-Council of the Borough of Montroſs, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for themſelves, and in the Name and Behalf of the Community of the ſaid Borough.

Moſt Sacred Sovereign,

WE are deeply ſenſible of the many and unparallel'd Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; and do moſt humbly preſume to congratulate Your Majeſty, that the Treaty of Peace is, by the Bleſſing of God on Your Endeavours, ſo far advanced, as to give us Hopes that it will be ſuddenly brought to an happy and honourable Concluſion: And this is the more glorious both for Your Majeſty and Your faithful and reſolute Miniſtry, that the ſame has been ſet on Foot and Proſecuted, in Oppoſition to an Ungrateful Faction at Home, ſupported by very conſiderable Powers Abroad.

Our Loyalty to Your Crown and Dignity is Old, Habitual, and Unſhaken; and we are hopeful that the tender Care Your Majeſty has had of the Intereſt of Your Subjects, during the whole courſe of a long and expenſive War, with the great Concern You have teſtified for an honourable, laſting, and advantageous Peace, and the intire Confidence which Your Majeſty has ſhew'd in Your People, by communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms upon which this Peace might be had, before the ſame was concluded, cannot but have ſuch happy and deſirable Effects upon the Hearts of all Your Majeſty's Subjects, who have the leaſt Spark of Gratitude or Integrity, as to Inſpire them with an ardent Zeal for promoting Your Majeſty's Honour.

But we lie yet under a further Obligation, and do, with all humble Sincerity, offer Your Majeſty moſt hearty Thanks for indulging us the Free Exerciſe of that Form of religious Worſhip uſed in the Church of England, which we are perſuaded is the beſt; and for reſtoring our Patrons to their ancient and juſt Rights, and in that Point delivering us from the Tyranny and Oppreſſion of Synods and Presbytery.

Though we are ſenſibly touch'd with the Loſs Your Majeſty's Allies ſuffered at Denain, yet we cannot but own that we bear it the more eaſily, becauſe we are hopeful the Conſequences of that unfortunate Action will convince theſe Potentates of the honourableneſs and ſafety of that Plan Your Majeſty offered for a general Peace, their obſtinate refuſing of which, obliged Your Majeſty to withdraw Your National Troops, the want of whoſe Valour and Conduct they have, by a fatal Experiment, learned to Value.

That Your Majeſty may long, very long, Reign over us, and ſtill continue the Favourite of the moſt High, and be directed in all Your Councils, and aſſiſted in all Your Actings, by his Infinite Wiſdom and Almighty Power, is the earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, and dutiful humble Servants.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, September 23. N. S. Signor Cornero having been excuſed from going to Conſtantinople, the great Council met on the 21ſt to chuſe a new Bailo in his Place. Signor Andrea Memo was elected, and it is thought he will accept the Employment. The Doge has been dangerouſly ill at his Country Seat, but he is now perfectly recovered. They write from Naples, that great Diligence is uſed there to prevent Aſſemblies of Malecontents, who begin to diſcover their Inclinations againſt the Government in a very preſumptuous manner. Advices from Turkey ſay, that the Plague deſtroys great numbers of People at Conſtantinople, Smirna, and Scio.

Berlin, October 1. N. S. This Morning the King came hither from Landsberg, where he had been in his way from Goltz. If the fair Weather continues, his Majeſty intends to go within a few Days to Potſdam, to be preſent at the Vintage there, as uſual. The Field-Marſhal is returned from Oranienburg, where he had been to receive the Czar, who has now alter'd his Reſolution of coming to this Place. By our laſt Letters from the Muſcovite Army in Pomerania we are informed, that they have at laſt reſolved to make a Deſcent into the Iſle of Rugen, and we expect continually to hear the Succeſs of this Enterprize.

Hanover, October 4. N. S. On Saturday laſt Mr. Harley ſet out from hence towards Great Britain. We have an Account from Pomerania, that the Czar is returned to the Camp, upon advice that the Daniſh Fleet was under ſail near the Coaſts of Rugen, by the help of which Fleet he has reſolved to make an attempt upon that Iſland with Ten thouſand Muſcovite Foot, ſuſtained by Two thouſand Saxon Horſe. It is ſaid, the Deſcent will be made at Putbus, a ſmall Town within two Leagues to the South of Bergen. Monſieur Fabrice, Envoy from the Elector to the Czar, is arrived at the Camp, and has delivered his Credentials.

Utrecht, October 7. N. S. On Wedneſday the 5th Inſtant the Miniſters of the States-General deſired a Conference with thoſe of Her Majeſty, which was accordingly held that Morning at the Lord Privy Seal's Houſe, and in the Afternoon their Lordſhips diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Great Britain. The ſame Evening Mr. Harley, accompanied by ſeveral Engliſh Gentlemen, arrived here from the Court of Hanover, and this Day he ſet out for Flanders, in order to return home. Upon the coming in of an Expreſs from Mareſchal Villars, the Pleniporentiaries of France give out, that Queſnoy ſurrendered on the 4th, and that the Trenches before Bouchain were to be opened on the 6th.

Whitehall, October 3. Her Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Exeter, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Rutland; and the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Eſſex.

Notice is hereby given to all Captors of Prizes, and Perſons employ'd by ſuch Captors, who have not within three Months after Sale of ſuch Prizes tranſmitted to the Treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital, at his Office there, a true Account of the Produce of ſuch Prizes, and of what Payments have been made reſpectively to the Captors thereof, that they forthwith tranſmit the ſame; and where three Years are expired ſince ſuch Payment, they are to
